

Harvey McKinnon

Bio

Harvey McKinnon, CFRE, is recognized as one of North America's leading fundraising experts.

He is an inspiring speaker, trainer, and writer who has helped raise hundreds of millions of dollars for nonprofits worldwide.

Harvey is author of the fundraising best-seller Hidden Gold (Bonus Books), which sold approximately 4000 copies in the U.S., making it a fundraising best-seller. Harvey also wrote the audio CD How Today's Rich Give (Jossey-Bass).

He has written for numerous publications, including the Globe & Mail, Vancouver Sun, and Utne.com. He is a former panelist on CBC Radio's Almanac Show and has done extensive media interviews on a variety of subjects.

Harvey has also produced documentary films on social issues. His films, which include Side by Side: Women Against Aids, The Black Sea in Crisis, and The Nature of David Suzuki, have won many awards and have been aired in dozens of countries.

Harvey has taught fundraising to nonprofits in North America, Australia, Europe, Asia, and Africa. He has also produced two training videos and a six-part TV series on fundraising, and is a regular speaker at major fundraising conferences.

After spending ten years with the international development agency OXFAM Canada, where he was Senior Development Officer, Harvey founded the Vancouver-based fundraising consultancy Harvey McKinnon Associates (www.harveymckinnon.com) in 1989. HMA works with clients in many countries, ranging from children's causes to environmental groups to hospitals. He is also co-founder of Amuleta Computer Security (www.amuleta.com).

Harvey has decades of volunteer experience in a wide variety of organizations. Today, he sits on several boards, including the Advisory Board of the Brainerd Foundation (U.S.) and the Vancouver International Comedy Festival. He knows at least 13,657 jokes.

Harvey lives with his family in Vancouver, Canada, where he bicycles to work regularly.
